

THE GREATER ISSAQUAH CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Where Business & Community Meet

King & Queen Issaquah 2010-2011

The reigning royalty at the recent ribbon cutting: King Brandon Lorain of Ameriprise Financial Services and Renee Walden of Issaquah Reporter with Chamber CEO Matthew Bott and Mark Mullet of Zeek's Pizza.

King and Queen Issaquah serve as the Chamber's highly visible goodwill ambassadors to the community. They preside over ribbon-cutting events, participate in the Fourth of July and Salmon Days parades, and are honored at Chamber Events.

Candidates are nominated by the membership for their business leadership and active role in the community.

To nominate a fellow Chamber member for this honor, please email Joyce Adams, Queen Mum, at joyce.adams6@comcast.net. List the nominee name, business, and briefly explain why they should be selected for this honor. Nominations will be accepted until Thursday, April 1.

The King and Queen will be crowned at the Chamber's 2010 Annual Gala - location and date to be determined.

Send Us Your Nominations!

Past Royalty

- 2009: Brandon Lorain, Ameriprise Financial Services
Renee Walden, Issaquah Reporter
- 2008: Brandon Bretl, Huntington Learning Center
Karen Allison, Arbonne International
- 2007: Rob Tamaela, Tamaela Mortgage
Tammy Conrad, John L. Scott Real Estate
- 2006: Bill Miglino, Evergreen Ford
Katie Ross, Swedish Hospital & Medical Ctr.
- 2005: Tony Banic, Banic Chiropractic
Sondi Lind, Port Blakely Communities
- 2004: Jim Myers, Issaquah Bank
Pam Thorsen, Skyline Gridiron Club
- 2003: Jeffrey Blaine, Prevail Credit Union
Michele Forkner, Kiwanis Club of Issaquah
- 2002: Leroy Miller, Issaquah Bank
Tina Huff, Farallon Consulting, LLC
- 2001: Michael Johnson, NewEra Photography
Lynn Rehn, Evergreen Ford